Thomas Drew commenced work as an agent in the Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., to-day to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of H. A. Duprey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Connor, former residents of Barre, have returned to their home in Weathersfield, after passing several days with friends in the city.

John S. Crowley has returned to his home in Essex Junction, after passing a few days in the city as the guest of Harry F. Jeffords and with his brother in East Barre.

Among the Williamstown and East Brookfield visitors in the city yesterday were: Mrs. A. A. Reed, Mrs. P. G. Reed, Mrs. Leon McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Willard F. Medcalf.

Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan of Webster-ville passed through the city last night, while en route to Montreal, P. Q., where she will make an extended visit with friends and relatives.

A. M. Collins of Calais was among the business visitors in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Villa, who have been visiting friends on Granite street during the past week, returned to their home in Portsmouth, N. H., yesterday.

All members of Court Rob Roy, No. 6, are hereby notified to attend a special summons meeting of the above-named court on Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, to hear report of special audit and to take action on the same. John A. Williams, chief ranger.

Harvey Dickey, who has been in Sas-watchewan since the latter part of August at work in the harvest fields, arrived in Barre last night from Montreal, P. Q., where he has been visiting friends during the past two weeks. To-day he will leave for East Corinth, where he has secured work through the winter.

The ladies and pastor's union of the Hedding M. E. church will hold its monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. John Trow, 112 Washington street, on Thursday at 2:30 p. m. It is hoped there will be a large attendance. A good program will be given and a report of the supper and sale. All who have not done so please pay dues at this time.

Barre council members of the Knights of Columbus will be the hosts at their club rooms on North Main street to-morrow evening at the first of a series of tournaments between the local knights and the Montpelier council. Cribbage and pool will be played and the results will form a beginning for the seven remaining tournaments that are to be played weekly during the late fall and winter.

Prayer services over the body of Mrs. Edwin G. Morey, whose death occurred Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Goss of 112 East street, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Barnett, pastor of the Congregational church, officiating. To-morrow morning the body will be taken over the Central Vermont railroad at 8:25 o'clock to Wilder, where the funeral will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Han-over, N. H.

All interested in birds will want to hear F. Schuyler Mathews give his illustrated lecture on "Bird Music and Its Relation to the Master Musicians," illustrated with his own watercolors and accompanied with modern imitations of the songs of each species, together with piano interpretations, an exhibit of over 40 paintings and musical charts. At 8 o'clock Thursday evening, Nov. 9, Spaulding hall. Members of the Barre Woman's club admitted on their membership tickets; others, adults 15c, children 10c.

Albert Saunders of Ayers street, who has been employed here in the granite industry for some time, has gone to New Haven, Conn., where he is secured employment as a patrolman at a munitions plant. Before leaving town, Mr. Saunders tendered his resignation as a special police officer and turned over his commission to the chief. The resignation was accepted by the city council last evening. Mr. Saunders has qualified as a member of a trained patrol force employed by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co. He was accompanied to New Haven by Joseph Lavery of North Main street, who expects to be employed by the munitions makers. Until recently Mr. Lavery did duty locally as a deputy sheriff.

Mayor J. E. Mann, Atty. C. F. Black and M. Magill of St. Albans, representing the Central Vermont railroad, were in the city yesterday to confer with City Clerk James Mackay on the matter of railroad taxation property in Barre. City Attorney William Wishart was called into the conference, and before the officials returned home, several pieces of property owned by the railroad were visited. The railroad people cited a supreme court ruling which exempted a building on railroad land in Montpelier and occupied as a store house by E. W. Bailey as showing that the presence of a building on railroad land which tends to relieve the congestion of freight is taxable by the state and not by the municipality. This ruling was cited in connection with land occupied by three stonebeds in Depot square and railroad land further north on Granite street. Railroad taxes due the city have not been paid, although the supreme court ruling which affected property in Barre and Montpelier in a manner favorable to the municipalities was handed down some time ago. Before leaving, the railroad officials intimated that the matter will be adjusted satisfactorily within a short time.

Henry Alexander of Branch street, who was recently elected as one of the delegates to represent the granite-towners' international association at the annual convention of the A. F. of L., was the guest of honor at a gathering of friends in Eagle's hall Saturday evening.

Around forty acquaintances and fellow laborers of Mr. Alexander were present and the evening was pleasantly spent.

Anthony Tomasi has in hand a plan for converting a two-story structure, recently occupied as a Chinese laundry, into a four-story apartment with suites suitable for light housekeeping. The building was moved to 10 Merchant street a few days ago and all that stands in the way of Mr. Tomasi's plan is the absence of a permit from the city council.

Just now the matter, having been reported to the building inspector, is in the safekeeping of the aldermanic fire committee and the fire chief, who are to meet to-morrow to inspect the building. A four-story piazza, with veranda space for each flat, will be one of the features of the four-decker if the plan goes through.

Miss Jennie Bottinelli of Fortney place was very pleasantly surprised last evening, when about 30 young men and women assembled at her home to help celebrate her birthday. It was a complete surprise to Miss Bottinelli. The evening was enjoyably spent in games of various sorts and a delightful program was in order with several songs and a solo by Vincent Osola. Miss Bottinelli was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Mrs. John Paragon presented her a purse of gold and a gold watch from the guests. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Before a representative gathering of Barre and Barre Town Socialists, as well as others who are sympathizers with the cause, Dr. W. R. Rowland discussed state and national issues in the Granite street auditorium last evening. His remarks constituted an eleven-hour appeal to the electorate to give grave consideration to the program which Socialism offers as a remedy for the existing evils of government and administration. He urged support for the party ticket at the polls to-day and said that the workers could gain the ends they desire by the judicious use of the ballot. It was Dr. Rowland's second visit to Barre as a gubernatorial candidate, as he headed the party's ticket in 1914. The candidate returned to his home in Corinth this morning.

While the football season is nearing a close, the Goddard boys are commencing to work up the initial enthusiasm for the basketball season, which will be under way within a few days. A large part of last year's team will not be seen, but several new men who have enrolled in school are capable players and should help to establish a team that will put Goddard back on the basketball map as they were a few years ago. Among the new men are Loukes, who played forward for Troy Conference academy last year, and Rogers, a guard on the Boston college high team last winter. These two men along with "Nig" Smith, the versatile Spaulding player, ought to work in with Haskett and Beatty to form one of the best quintets ever representing the school on the hill.
